

BULLETIN GIRLS ARE HELPING HAWAII

Portland's Great Hustler Writes Of Their Trip

Mr. H. P. WOOD,
Secretary Hawaii Promotion Committee,
Honolulu, Hawaii,
Oct. 9th, 1907.

My Dear Mr. Wood:—The visit here of Mrs. Edyth Tozier Weathered and party of nine Hawaiian young ladies has been a marked success in every possible way.

The newspaper accounts I presume you have seen, but they only tell a very small part of the story. For instance, on Monday night Mrs. Weathered and the young ladies were given a dinner at the Commercial Club which was attended by the President and his wife, and three of the Board of Governors and their wives, and even after a dinner which lasted from 6 until almost 9 o'clock there were hundreds of the prominent people of the city in the parlors to meet the young ladies. We could have gotten through a good deal sooner but we had no idea that more than a small party would be upstairs when the dinner was over.

In a trolley ride over the city also given by the Commercial Club there were a number of representative citizens accompanied by their wives, and every organization in the city which participates in public entertaining of any kind or character has invited these young ladies to some kind of entertainment.

Standing by Mrs. Weathered's side Monday night, I heard two invitations presented within ten minutes and I know the girls will be here three weeks if they undertake to fill even a portion of the entertainments proffered them. They have occupied boxes at the leading theatres, have had luncheons, auto rides, have been entertained at several of the homes, and in these entertainments the City has been represented officially through its commercial and social organizations, the Women's Club being especially active.

Mrs. Weathered made a speech at the dinner Monday night which would have been creditable to any man in this town. She told of the coming to Oregon of the first printing press; after it had ended its usefulness in cultured Honolulu it was sent to Oregon. Of course we can take such things good-naturedly now, as we have long since grown away from the old Washington hand-press. She did not overlook the opportunity to remind the Pacific Coast, not only our State, but California and Washington, that it is only in recent years that we have educated our sons and daughters at home; in the earlier days we sent the pick of them to the magnificent schools of Hawaii.

To return to the dinner Monday night, for which a special menu was prepared, carrying the American colors and bearing the names of the young ladies and their chaperone, I neglected to tell you that the Rose Society sent to each of the young ladies a magnificent bouquet of flowers, and that the Commercial Club gave to each of them, presented in autograph, the handsome illustrated book that has ever been brought out here showing the scenery of the Pacific Coast.

I think it is splendid advertising that these young ladies have been induced to come here. They are interesting everybody and our citizens will not soon forget their delightful songs nor the Paradise of the Pacific from whence they came.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) TOM RICHARDSON,
Manager, Portland Commercial Club.

CALLIE LUCAS' LATEST LETTER

Writing from Portland, Oregon, Oct. 21: "Of course we meet only the best of October 5th Callie Lucas says, people and see only one side of life. We have been so very busy and I wish all my friends could enjoy the don't know just where to begin. You pleasures of this trip. The people do really can't realize how hard it is even to send cards. The people have treated us so royally! Not even kings and queens could be treated better. As I go among them I realize what noise people they are and what a grand thing it is to be a man or woman on this beautiful earth."

Being a lovely bunch of roses enter the room. He seemed to be studying us and trying hard to decide a very important mental mix-up. Pretty soon he came up to me and asked me to point out the girl whose name was Miss Lucas. He was very much surprised to know that it or she was I. Well, he asked lots and lots of questions and when he stopped for breath I tried to learn who he was. He finally gave me the roses and said he was Mr. Goodale who had long ago visited the Volcano with your party.

"I will now go back as far as Palo Alto. We landed there at 11 o'clock on the 2nd of October. We had only one short day there, but it was a delightful one. We were very fortunate in visiting Stanford on Assembly day. They assemble once in two weeks. We were given choice seats in the hall and I shall always remember my enjoyment at being present. There were five hundred girls and as many boys. How I wish you could have heard them yell. Five hundred men all giving the college yell in one voice. Really it was thrilling. One yell is especially fine. They close it with a long whistle. There were two professors visiting the same day, so we had the opportunity of hearing two extremely fine lectures.

"The University Glee Club sang for us. Here comes the exciting part. My four girls were made to climb down ladders to the stage and sing before all these people. Just imagine standing before a thousand people and having everyone stare at you and then you try to sing.

"They went wild over our singing and said they enjoyed it, but really we were all stage struck and did poorly. We left for San Francisco at 3:15. We were in the city only two hours.

"We were then on the train for two days. The scenery on the route was just grand. We saw Mount Shasta all day long. It is a beautiful sight. We all liked the scenery and drank the famous water. Some people liked it. Some didn't.

"The autumn leaves are simply beautiful. I simply went daffy over them. If I can cross when I get home, I'll have the leaves. The trees too are beautiful but different of course from anything I have ever seen. No use, I can't climb any of them. The last night on the train we all went into the observation car and had a very enjoyable evening. Just think of having a dance on a moving train. Well we had one. We met Dr. and Mrs. Moore. They are a fine couple and give a dance in our honor next Tuesday. I almost forgot to say, we sang.

"We will now hear a little about Salem. We arrived at 6 o'clock in the morning. We were met at the depot by Mrs. Weathered's brother. We were taken to the hotel and after breakfast were taken about the city in a trolley car. I do wish you could have seen the car. It was decorated most beautifully with flowers. We first went way out into the country and visited a quarry. Then we were taken to the State Asylum. The place was beautiful, but I shall never forget the sight as long as I live. We saw about fifty patients, all women; some young and some old. They waved to us and many seemed pleased to see us. We visited the vineyard but best of all was the visit to the apple orchard. We were allowed to help ourselves to the apples. They were simply grand. I won't tell you how many we ate. You might blush.

"From the asylum we visited the High School. We were given a merry greeting and spent a pleasant hour in the building.

"It can't come up to our dear old Honolulu High School. It is a building much like Kaahumanu. It was about 2 o'clock when we left the school and we were supposed to be ready by three for an auto ride. We hurried home and after a few attempts to look decent we went autoing. We had a dandy time. We visited a prune ranch. We got home about six and hurried into our well-laden car for a dinner and reception.

"I wish you could have seen our table, and the parlor. Everyone seemed to send in great bunches of flowers. One man presented the whole family with a sheet of music. I haven't heard the piece yet. Another gave each of us a dozen postals. You have some of them by now.

"After dinner we stood in line for about two hours. I do believe everyone in Salem was at that reception. We met many lovely people.

"We were called at 6 o'clock this morning and I had a fine morning walk. I was much surprised to find the weather as warm as it is. We had to hurry with our breakfast in order to catch the 8 o'clock train for Portland. The train ride this morning was dandy. The scenery was so pretty, especially along the river.

"We were met at the depot by a number of Portland ladies. They all had beautiful roses. Oh, I forgot to say that the girls all wore rose leis to Portland. We made them in Salem. One lady had a pretty lei on her arm and she asked me to please show her Miss Lucas. She said Mr. Francis asked her to be especially nice to me. She certainly was.

"We arrived in Portland about 1 o'clock and had a small reception or more of a rubbering match. We had a light lunch and then had a dandy trolley ride about the city. Portland is pretty but Los Angeles is prettier. While at lunch the proprietor of the lunch room gave us a card. Mt. Hood, he is going to entertain us at his home sometime this week. Tonight we are having an evening at home for just a few friends. I wanted to write, so the only way is to vanish. The girls are down in the parlor entertaining their cousins.

"You are now up to date with our travels. I forgot to tell you we visited the capitol at Salem and were given the State seal. When you see any of my friends tell them I am having a grand time. The only regret I have is that I can't find time to write them.

PORTLAND WILL INVITE HAWAII Many Special Attractions For Hawaiian Visitors

The Portland Telegram of Oct. 7 says: While the party of Honolulu maidens is in the Rose City this week a proposition is to be made to it by the Rose Festival Association to carry back to Honolulu an invitation to the commercial bodies and business men to conduct a special steamer excursion to Portland for the festival next year.

Details of this plan will be taken up by the management with Mrs. Weathered, chaperone of the party, and she may be requested to present the invitation in person to the business people of Hawaii.

It is probable that the Hawaiians will look with favor upon arranging for such a visit to this side, and it will be the first junketing trip to this Coast on a big scale ever initiated in the islands. The fact that President Roosevelt has been invited to be the city's guest of honor, that "Fighting Bob" Evans is likely to be here with his magnificent fleet, that the California State Board of Trade is coming and that many distinguished visitors from other States will be here, it is figured will be ample inducement for the Hawaiians to come.

Besides, the artistic, the esthetic, particularly floral beauty and lavish decorations and illuminations, appeal to Hawaiians. They are great travelers and are good spenders, and for these reasons every effort will be made to bring them here. The secretary of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce visited Portland last summer, and an appeal will be made to him directly to assist in the plan, chiefly in the interest of establishing a line of steamers between here and Hawaii. This enterprise has been the fond dream of many Portlanders and also of the big business interests of the islands.

How Money Will Be Spent
The Festival Association directors met this morning and made an apportionment of the $100,000 fund, which it is hoped will be secured to carry out the festival plans. This apportionment indicates more clearly than any statement heretofore given Chronic Hoarseness.

Mrs. Della C. Cameron, Healdsburg, Cal., member Daughters of America, writes:

"Having tried many remedies for chronic catarrh of the bronchial tubes, and not receiving any benefit, I began to think there was no help for me until I began to use Peruna.

"In a short time the bronchial tubes began to clear, I did not have that 'frog in my throat' continually, my voice was not nearly so husky, and the wheezing noise disappeared.

"I was soon able to believe that I was entirely free from catarrh, and as this was several months ago, I do not believe that it will return."

The above group of women could be multiplied by ten thousand without reaching the number that have been helped by taking Peruna.

A Wasting Disease.

Mrs. Roxa Tyler, 620 Madison Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Vice President of the Illinois Woman's Alliance, writes: "During the past year I gradually lost flesh and strength until I was unable to perform my work properly. I tried different remedies, and finally Peruna was suggested to me. "It gave me new life and restored my strength. I cannot speak too highly of it."

Ask your druggist for a copy of our booklet, "The Ills of Life," giving instructions covering the most effective use of Peruna. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists. The following wholesale druggists will supply the retail trade in Honolulu, Hawaii: Benson, Smith & Co., Honolulu Drug Co., Hobron Drug Co.

The pirate ship was being attacked by the frigate. "Great Neptune!" roared the buccannier mate. "Here come the boarders!" The pirate chief gazed over the bulwarks and grinned. "Boarders, indeed!" he chuckled. "They are almost as fat as summer boarders down on a farm."

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN

Holly Flour

And all the others is in the quality of the wheat, the process of manufacture and the method of handling from seed to consumer. We put this flour before you believing you will find it superior to any you have ever used and knowing that one bag will make more bread than a bag of any other brand. Some dealers prefer the other kind because there may be a little more profit. You look more to satisfaction and you should insist on having Holly Flour because it will bring you more bread satisfaction than any other. It's good, mighty good, and you should use it in preference to others.
